

2.15 PRIVACY POLICY

We respect your right to privacy and we recognise the trust you are placing in us through your dealings with us. As such we do everything we can to maintain that trust. Our staff are employed on the basis that they will protect information about you. Staff and volunteers of the organisation sign a document safeguarding the privacy of your details held by the organisation. The information you provide remains private and is only used for the purposes outlined below. Should you wish to provide anonymous information or use pseudonyms, you are permitted to do so.

What information we collect & why we collect it

Bright Futures Child Aid and Development Fund Australia Limited (Bright Futures) collects the following information:

Contact information including name, address, phone numbers and email addresses. These are used to process receipts and to keep you abreast of any issues or developments we may think you have an interest in.

Financial information including bank account and credit card details are used to process transactions. The information we collect is always treated as strictly confidential and is never disclosed to a third party without your prior consent, or unless required by law. We never make our database available to other organisations.

Opting out of further correspondence

If you do not wish to receive any further information on Bright Futures or to be contacted about our work, you will be given the opportunity to make this election every time information is sent to you, or you may contact our office directly to cancel any further communications.

How this information is held

The security of your information is important to us. When we have collected information about you it cannot be seen or modified by anyone else. We make all reasonable efforts to ensure that your information is stored securely - both in electronic and physical forms. We do not store your information in any country other than in Australia. If and when we use external contractors, such as a mailing house to send you our mail, any personal information disclosed to the contractor remains confidential to us. Any information, which we no longer require, is destroyed. An exception to this may be the retention of information for data analysis. However if this occurs then the information will be retained in a form that does not allow you to be identified from that information.

How you can access and correct the information held

It is our policy to give access to our supporters to the information we hold on them. This is consistent with our commitment to transparency. You may access your information at any time. If you would like to know what information we hold about you please contact our office. If you discover your information is incorrect, incomplete or out of date please notify us and we will try to correct or add the information as soon as possible. If you would like to talk to our office about this please do so as per the details below.
